

Second Announcement and Call for Applications

17th Berlin Summer School

Psychiatry as a Science and as a Profession: Physical activity, Exercise and Mental Disorders

- Organized by Department of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Charité Campus Mitte, Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin in collaboration with the Association for the Improvement of Mental Health Programmes and supported by the Berlin School of Mind and Brain, Humboldt University
- Faculty Prof. Dr. Dr. Norman Sartorius, Prof. Dr. Dr. Andreas Heinz, Prof. Dr. Andreas Ströhle
- Date / Place August 27th –September first, 2017, Berlin (Germany)
- Objectives
- Acquisition of skills related to research and professional advancement in psychiatry
 - Further development of Sports Psychiatry
- Target audience
- Medical doctors (two years before or after the end of postgraduate training in psychiatry) and psychologists a year before or after their PhD degree
 - Candidates from eastern and south-eastern European countries are particularly welcome to apply
- Applications Please send to Prof. Dr. A. Ströhle, Charité - Universitätsmedizin Berlin, Department of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Campus Charité Mitte, Charitéplatz 1, 10117 Berlin, Germany
- a brief CV with list of publications / copies of own publications where possible
 - a motivation letter including a statement about your research interests
 - a certificate of proficiency in English
 - a letter of recommendation from the head of your department, or from the president of the national psychiatric society
- Successful candidates will be expected to make an oral presentation on a subject of their choice and to present a poster.
- (as well as a digital copy by email to andreas.stroehle@charite.de)

Deadline for applications 5th of May, 2017

Participants are also invited to present their research as a poster or talk at the 16th Charité Conference on Emotional Neuroscience, taking place September first and second, 2017

Stipends covering accommodation costs are generously funded by the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft and a donation. Please apply.

Questions? Please contact Prof. Dr. Andreas Ströhle (andreas.stroehle@charite.de)